

Places	Trade Goods	Cultural Aspects
Mesopotamia/Sumer	Traded for metal, wood & stone Traded with Eastern Iran & Afghanistan for gold and lapis lazuli	+Regulated trade and provide merchants with financial help +Mesopotamian merchants created guildlike organizations (karum)
Babylon		+Government created positions like "chief trader" +Most major funding came from private parties, like wealthy nobles or merchants.
UR
Cyprus, Greece	Wine and fine pottery to Mesopotamia
Syria
Anatolia	Traded with Mesopotamia. Tin and copper
Iran	Tin
Arabia and African coast	Copper, gold, ivory, pearls, diorite, semi precious stones to Mesopotamia Ebony
Syria and Palestine	Cedar and aromatic oils
Mesopotamia	Traded grain, sesame seeds, dates, textiles, embroidered clothes, leather goods, bronze weapons, jewelry
Asia, India & Arabia		Good network of roads and a unified coinage system

--	--	--